

Date: _____ 2025

Day: _____

Frailty Is No More Name of Women.

Outlines

A: Introduction

1. ~~Introductory statement~~
2. ~~✓ Thesis statement: Frailty is still the name of women.~~

B: ~~How is frailty the name of women?~~

1. ~~✓~~ Lack of representation of women in decision-making bodies reflects their continued marginalisation.

Research: Women Empowerment and Political Decision-Making

2. ~~✓~~ Quota systems show symbolic empowerment than real equality

Case study: Quota-Based Inclusions (Sindh)

Date: _____

Day: _____

3. / Economic dependency

4. / Patriarchal norms still define the boundaries of women existence.

Example: Incident of Dagari, Balochistan.

5. / Neglect of women health manifest their systematic devaluation.

6. / Low awareness of rights reinforces their subjugation
Example: Gender divides in Pakistan

7. / Relative identity denies their independent identities

8. / Woman champions in specific fields mirror the exception, not the norm.

Date: _____

Day: _____

9.  Huge educational disparity

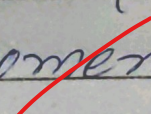

Example: Census of 2023, Pakistan

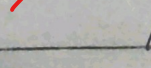

10.  Merit system sustains structural exclusion of women

11.  Gender-biased practices have weakened women

12.  Misinterpretation of religious teachings to justify women's subordination.

13.  Treatment of women as familial property has denied their personhood.

14.  Domestic violence symbolises women powerlessness.

15.  Weak state commitment to empowerment has maintained women frailty.

C: Conclusion