

Title:

Misguided Energy vs. True Rest

The author criticize the restless activities of people which they are doing senselessly. Devil is the busiest creature even in his kingdom, nobody is allowed to do anything. The author believe world is in misdeed but it is not because of the lack of virtues. it is the result of lack of consistent kindness & thinking. In world still present a lot of energy But used in a wrong way. If a leader & statesmen had sometime chosen idleness over restlessness actions the world might have been in a better condition. True Success of the world require kindness & occasional rest rather than endless busyness.

(words in passage = 494)
 (words in précis = 106)