

Title:-

"Life And Work Of Nizar Hassan"

Nizar Hassan was born in the village 'Mashhad'. ^{He} ~~After~~ studied anthropology at Haifa University. After graduation, he entered into film industries and produced "Independence" highlights the paradox of Israel celebrating independence while occupying palestine land. When Israel was planning another annexation, the author was made another documentary ~~titled~~ titled "My Grandfather's Path". In this documentary warns palestinians to keep their ideals and not to become like their enemies. The writer also praise the beauty of palestinian drama, art, poetry and fiction which were not influenced by cruel politics. The author praises "My Grandfather's Path" as a tribute to palestine should be watched without interruption.