

Reading Comprehension = CGS - 2017

what has been lamented in the text?

In this text the writer want to describe that the great things are done by those who love their work and done anything to meet their spiritual desire. many are doing activities just for the beauty with the lack of spiritual relation in it. The writer gives an example that like an artist exercise his aesthetic activity in the discovery of real beauty of world and then put it in art. In the same way we should also have to find relation of universe with activities. with this habit we would be able to satisfy our spiritual desire. An action without moral activity is distasteful, same is with object without aesthetic activity is distasteful.

what is difference between ordinary man and an artist?

The difference between ordinary man and an artist is that an artist loves to discover beauty of universe and he impart that beauty to what he makes and by doing so he get satisfaction in his desire.

whereas the ordinary man sees things and also do work without spiritual desire, he always demand beauty for the sake of beauty not with the relation to universe, even without recognizing the aesthetic activity of the spirit.

How Can we make our lives beautiful and Charming?

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by creating the habit of finding the relation between our activities and the universe in order to get spirituality and satisfaction of desires, as ^{an} artist do. only the internal satisfaction in every activity can make our lives beautiful and charming.

What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

When the writer says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life". It describe this that when an ordinary man made or buy anything he demands beauty for the sake of beauty, The writer says beauty is not an ornament to life but the real beauty lies in to find the relation of that beauty with the universe. As action without moral activity are distasteful, same the objects without aesthetic activity are distasteful.

Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or not Agreed! Art and beauty have many affects in our practical life and morals, as the great things of history have also been done by the lovers, by the saints, and by the artists. It helps to acquire satisfaction of spiritual desire and to acquire beauty of universe and its relation with our activities. By doing so, internal satisfaction affects our spiritual practical life positively and helps to build moral values.

Draft

Precis-2018

Weather and its Impacts on Human

According to the author, the Countries of northern Europe have much benefits of cold weather, because it stimulates energy by bearing challenges. While facing these inevitable challenges, human gets demotivated, whereas in the absence of challenges, human becomes lazy, but efforts against challenges strengthen one's own power. In cold weather, he arranges thick clothes and fuel for fires, he has to bear hardship of weather and gets acquired good food. In moderate weather areas, humans do not need thick clothes or fire and can sustain life without these hardships. We ^{may} must accept this difference in our lives. In hot weather, we become lazy, but in cold weather, we bear more hardships of both mental and physical.

Passage words : 342

Precis words : 121