Title: Devil: the busiest person.

All the evils are brought by the busiest people. The devil is still the busiest person as in his kingdom nobody is allowed to do nothing. The world is in a confused state but not because of laziness. There is a plenty of misdirected energy. If in the past people have lied in the sunshine and consumed tobacco then we would have been much better. But according to doctrine of life something must be done. If our statesmen had done nothing and have gone to peace conference, then our relations with world would be better. Even if today politicians relinquish the notion that laziness is crime and do nothing, we would gain by it. Certain religious sects ~~maintain~~^{who} hold conferences and condemned the length of ladies' skirts and noises of dance bands should stare at the sky and recover their mental health.
