

loss of apathy
and desensitization

competition and greed

Technological development

Global warming to Global boiling

Agriarian to industrial way of life

Brainstorming

Changes in seasons

Nature as least Priority

Social changes Diseases
floods
destructions

Deforestation

Overpopulation
especially in the third world countries

Economic Agricultural
destructions

Over construction, Production & consumption

challenges for the state especially third world.

Climate Change: Causes and Consequences

Outline of the Essay.

1. Introduction:

1.1 Hook

1.2 Background

1.3 Thesis statement: Causes of Climate are technological development, shift in agrarian to industrial way of life, Nature as least priority, and over-population. The consequences of it are global boiling, seasonal changes, floods, diseases, disruptions and challenges to state governments especially third world.

2. Causes of Climate Change

2.1 Technological Development

2.2 Desensitization and loss of apathy.

2.3 Competition and greed

2.4 Shift from agricultural to Industrial way of life.

3. Nature as least Priority

3.1 Deforestation

4. Overpopulation

4.1 Over construction, consumption and production.

5. Consequences

5.1 Global warming to

~~5.2~~ Global boiling.

5.2 Seasonal changes

6. Social consequences

6.1 Diseases

6.2 floods

6.3 Destructions

7. Economic consequences

7.1 Agricultural destructions and challenges to state and people especially in the third world countries.