

Pathways to Pakistan Prosperity

Outline.

1. Introduction

- (a) Hook
- (b) Background
- (c) Thesis Statement: Pakistan's Prosperity can be achieved through a multidimensional framework that ensures economic reforms, educational and development skill, Agricultural Modernization, Strong foreign Policy, Environment Sustainability, Infrastructure development, Political Stability, Tourism development and Energy security for the better future of its people.

2. Pathways

2.1:- Economic Reform

2.1.1:- Privatization of loss-making state owned enterprise

2.1.2:- Broadening the tax base to increase revenue.

2.1.3:- Promoting ease of doing business.

2.1.4:- Encouraging Public-Private Partnerships.

2.2:- Educational and Development Skills

2.2.1:- Mandatory Primary and Secondary Education

2.2.2:- Promoting research and higher education.

2.2.3:- Technical Training systems.

2.3: Agricultural Modernization

2.3.1: Agricultural research and innovation

2.3.2: Mechanization of farming Techniques

2.3.3: Crops diversification and water management

2.4: Strong Foreign Policy

2.4.1: Improve relations with neighbor countries

2.4.2: Strengthening relations with US, China and EU.

2.4.3: Expanding trade with Gulf countries

2.4.4: Active role in SCO, UN and SAARC.

2.5: Environment Sustainability

2.5.1: Afforestation and 10 Billion Tree Tsunami

2.5.2: Waste management and pollution control initiatives.

2.5.3: Water Storage (Dams).

2.6: Infrastructure Development

2.6.1: Through CPEC Project

2.6.2: Modern highways and motorways expansion

2.6.3: Smart urban planning

2.6.4: Rural infrastructure and road connecting

2.7: Political Stability

2.7.1: Ensuring Independence of judiciary

2.7.2: Strengthening NAB, FIA.

2.7.3: Merit based appointments.

2.8: Tourism Development.

2.8.1: Visa reforms and tourism-friendly policies

2.8.2: Coastal tourism in Gwadar, Karachi

2.8.3: Eco-tourism in northern areas

DATE: _____

DAY: _____

2.9: Energy Security

2.9.1: - Dam construction and hydropower projects -

2.9.2: Exploration of indigenous oil and gas reserves.

2.9.3: Expansion of renewable energy

2.9.4: Regional energy cooperation

3: Recommendations

4: Conclusion