

Development of Commerce

Commerce, in the early ages was difficult due to unsafe roads. But later, man's creativity made it feasible for every one. In the beginning, communication was not easy and safe but slowly ~~when~~ the government built paid roads through which trade became Achievable. Despite many Challenges the group of towns ensured economic prosperity.