

Free Writing

Date: _____

Day: _____

Recent floods have proved ineffectiveness of Pakistan canal system.

Old and obsolete-pattern designed canals failed to control the flow of water. Similarly, government and concerned institutions lack of attention has put canal system vulnerable to bear the ~~unexpected~~ flow of water. Moreover, inefficient urban planning on the bank of canals ~~was~~ is another core factor making the scenario worse. Park View City is ^{the} main example of an inefficient urban planning in ~~for~~ Lahore.

Further more, insufficient amount of budget for canal system maintenance improvement is another key factor, which leads to a poor performance to bear over-flow of water. Likewise, lack of long-term planning is a significant reason of canal system failure in Pakistan. There has to be immediate measures taken to improve and strengthen canal system in Pakistan. Long-term effective policies, a strong infrastructure, sufficient budget allocation and effective urban planning ~~the~~ kind of initiatives could lead to a successful canal system. In short, canal system in Pakistan vulnerable, however, sound policies and steps may guarantee the the success of canal system.

Date: _____

Day: _____