The Role of Public-private partnerships in Developing Tourism infrastructure

Outline

① Introduction

② concept of public private partnership.

③ The role of public private partnerships in Devolping Tourism

⑤ public private Infrastructure

3.1 public private partnership mobilizes financial resources for large-scale tourism infrastructure projects

Case study: Dubai built airports and resorts through government-private joint venture

3.2 collaboration improves transport and connectivity essential for tourism

case study: Turkey's PPP projects in highways and airports strengthened access to tourist destinations

3.3 public private partnership modernizes hospitality infrastructure.

case study: Malaysia expand its hotel industry.

3.4 Public private partnership contribute to the preservation and restoration of heritage sites

Case study: Spain revitalized its cultural landmarks

3.5 partnership ensures eco-friendly and sustainable tourism infrastructure
Case study: Costa Rica developed eco-lodge and natural parks

3.6 Public private partnership enhances international competitiveness by upgrading facilities to global standards.
case study: Singapore's Mairina Bay Tourism hub

4 Challenges to public-private parthership in developing tourism infrastructure.

4.1 Weak legal and regulatory frameworks hinder smooth functioning of public private parthership projects case study: in India several PPP projects stalled due to unclear policies and regulations 4.2 Corruption and lack of transparency undermine confidence in partnerships.
case study: in Indonesia PPP ~~stand~~ contracts face delay due to non-transparent bidding

4.3 unequal sharing of risks and profits discourages private sector investment.
case study: In some African countries, private investors withdrew

5 Way Forward for strengthening public private partnership in Tourism Infrastructure.

5.1 Clear and strong legal frameworks ensure effective implementation of PPP projects.

5.2 Transparency bidding processes ensure accountability in tourism partnerships.

5.3 Fair risk-sharing models encourage private sector investment in tourism conclusion.