convenient but more effective than traditional classroom learning.

~~Education is the tool to shape the future of nations. It must be accessible to all.~~

Introduction:-

Education is the tool to shape the future of nations. Access to education is an inalienable right of every child. Every alien and effortful education is crucial for the growth of nations. In current era, two different methods of education are in practice, one is the online education and other is physical classroom education.

Online education is less favourable and efficient than the traditional classroom education. Most of the people in developing countries are unaware of learning through digital platforms. Majority of the people in rural areas have negligible access to internet and they lack the affordability to purchase digital devices. Not only this, a higher number of students complain about the less concentration in digital classrooms. They also tend to perform less due to non accountability of teachers. ~~Due to~~ Online learning, ~~Prevent~~
