Consequences of Socio-Economic Disparity

"O people! We have created you from one man and <sup>one</sup> woman". Allah Almighty has clarified in the Holy Quran that everyone is equal in the eyes of God. It means that God has created ~~by~~ everyone equal but we, humans, have created inequalities among ourselves. Most of these inequalities come under the <sup>broad</sup> topic of Socio-economic disparities. They are disastrous for any Nation! This paragraph elucidates the aftermaths of socio-economic disparities in any nation.

When there is socio-economic disparity in any society, crimes will be high. Poor people do not get their due share due to monopoly of few well offs. In order to meet their daily domestic expenses, they move on path of evils. They will rob, snatch or even kill another person to earn some money. The Holy Prophet (S.A.W) has rightly said, "Poverty almost leads to disbelief."

Socio-economic discrepancies lead to class distinction in any society. The have and have-nots move miles away from each other due to their social status. It is very dangerous for any society. It can even lead to disintegration of any state. Socio-economic gap became one of the reasons of a black chapter in Pakistan's political journey with the creation of Bangladesh in 1971.

Anti-national sentiments also emerge as a result of socio-economic variations. Those areas, ethnicities or classes, which are treated unfairly by the state, become the weapons of enemy state. Some of them become violent non-state actors that are funded by the foreign powers to terrorise the people and hamper national integration. For instance, RAW <sup>has been</sup> funding and training several separatist or rebellious groups in Balochistan for many years to sabotage the projects of CPEC.

In the nutshell, it can be concluded that socio-economic disparity in any state can degenerate society
