human beings by spreading and propagation of the importance of forgiveness in the society.

Virtue and evil are the outcomes of the action of human beings.

The human beings are committing mistakes, but it is virtue of other human being that he should forgive the mistakes of others. Man is not a perfect

He has some kinds of demerits and merits as well which distinguishes him from the other. Human beings are the embodiment of both virtue and evils. The forgiveness is the best quality of human to which brings peace in the life of human beings.

As our religion also teaches us the lesson of forgiveness. Therefore, forgiveness is the most essential element for the peace in society.

How human being can spend a simple and peaceful life through the habit of forgiveness.

Firstly. It brings health at both at physical and psychological level. When the human beings forgive the other mistake then he does not have hateful feelings about others. It will not impact on the life of an individual. When he adopts the habit of forgiveness he tries to avoid extra thinking which prevents him from various kinds of physical and psychological diseases. Most of the physical and psychological diseases are the outcome of holding grudges against others. According to research about mental health 80% of psychological and physical problems occur in human beings due to the absence of the habit of forgiveness.

Forgiveness brings peace and prosperity in the life of human beings. When the person does not have revengeful feelings about others. They forgive the mistakes of others then the society will move towards the zenith of peace.

and prosperity. As the history shows that the life of Arabs were based on various conflicts because of the absence of the quality of forgiveness. people were fought against each other even on a petty matter. Their life turns into peace after the arrival of holy prophet because He (P.B.U.H) preaches the lesson of forgiveness. In this way, the life of the human beings will become into the land of paradise after adopting the quality of forgiveness.

Forgiveness does not only impact on the health and peace in society. It also impact on the innovations in society. When a man finds a peaceful environment and observe the then he will think about the new things. A peaceful mind and a calm bring new thoughts and think about the new things. A man does not only have relation with himself. He is a social animal. He

He will have to build relation with different institutions of society like family, school, social relations etc. The man who has adopted the ability of forgiveness will enable to bring innovative ideas for resolving the existing problems of society. Therefore, the habit of forgiveness impact on the innovation of society.

The success of both internal and external life also depends on both the adoption the habits of forgiveness. When a man does not hold grudges. He does not take the actions against their opponent. He does not commit any kind of crime for taking revenge. As according to Bacon, the revenge leads a man towards taking illegal actions. "When a man does not take illegal action then he will achieve success at his internal and external life. His external life will free from cares and and worries about taking action whereas his internal life will leads towards success. Due to the adoption of good behaviour.

Forgiveness is the ability of God. When a man adopt the ability of forgiveness then he will adopt the characteristic of the God. As a human beings we are doing alot of wrong deeds but Our God always protect us and provides us basic needs. In the same way, when a man adopt the habit of forgiveness then he will adopt the quality of God. This ability <sup>brings</sup> makes a man closer to God.

It creates a strong relationship As Imam Rabbanis says "The adoption of the ability of forgiveness is only key success. As when a man adopt the quality of forgiveness relationship with God.

Forgiveness teaches us the love for humanity. It teaches to the human that how a person can ignore the follies of others and forgive his mistakes. It propagates the values of humanity in the society.

People think about the solution of the existing problems. As if a society man commits the crime of theft then the other man should think why does he commit crime. He finds the solution through his economic aid. As according to Ferdinand Archduke, "Forgiveness is the preacher of love for humanity. It makes a man as a philanthropist. In this way forgiveness teaches us the love for humanity.

If the forgiveness brings peace in society then revenge brings destruction in society. Revenge brings various negative impact in society. As society is the place where a person build his character. Revenge.

destroys the person's character building. As the forgiveness, balance control of emotions are the characteristics of a strong character. While on the other hand revenge shatters the balance control of emotion. As according to Bentham revenge is like a fire which destroys the character of a person. So revenge destroys the character's strong building.

Revenge also impact on the health of a person. When a person holds grudge against the other person. It also impact on his both physical and psychological health. Hated feelings and holding grudges about anyone always pinching him and he becomes a mentally ill person. Physically he may suffer from heart diseases, high blood pressure and mental agony. Therefore the feelings of revenge always brings destruction <sup>for</sup> at individual level and collective level.

Revenge brings social anarchy in society and destroy the peace and unity of a society. Being hostile a person wants to take his revenge at any cost. For the sake of taking revenge he may use right or wrong path. As Bacon says "Revenge urges a man to do unlawful deeds which brings anarchy in the society". Bacon's Essay, The Revenge: For the sake of satisfaction the person use the wrong path which will cause the destruction of the peace and harm harmony in society.

Revenge does not only shatter the person's character and health of an individual. It also bring anarchy and social ~~distur~~ destructive element in society. When the person does not find a peaceful environment where he can live peacefully

Then he become as a destructive agent of society. He cannot produce any kind of innovations in society. He cannot produce developemental project in society which will bring social welfare for the society. As Belsay describes that the revenge is a destructive agent of society. It shatters the developement of society and also produce destructive agent for society which will destroy the social peace of society. Therefore, the revenge destroy the peace of society and bring destruction in the society. In this way, the society will leads towards the diversity.

There are few elements of society which will prove helpful in prevarling the habit of forgiveness in society. Firstly, the religious scholars should preach the life of holy prophet (P.B.U.H). As the life of Life of Holy Prophet (P-B-U-H) is the complete embodiment for the people. When a man tries to adopt the characteristics of the Holy prophet his life become more easier. As when the person observe the life of holy prophet (P-B-U-H) he sees that there are many incidents where prophet (P-B-U-H) prefers the forgiveness over revenge. Once an old woman always throw garbage upon him when he passed near her house. One day she did not throw the garbage upon him. He (P-B-U-H) went <sup>her</sup> house and acquired her health. He (P-B-U-H) found that she was ill. He (P-B-U-H) take care of her and she was very impressed by him and embraced Islam. In this way, the person observe that the how the forgiveness brings peace in the society.

The second and most comprehensive way of propagation of virtue of the forgiveness is the conduction of the counselling programme at character's building at local and social level. Various institution plays an essential role in building the character of a man. A man is a social animal he has to go in all various kinds of institution for obtaining the basic needs. For example, if he is a child he will have to go to school or if he is an adult then he will do work and go their field of interests. The local government should perform the best role in the propagation of the good various values through the implementation of the conduction of counselling programmes. "The counselling programmes at social and local level plays a kernel role in the building of a person's character." (Martin Lefaty, Character Building) Therefore, the conduction of counselling programme plays an essential role for the development of society.

In the current era social media is the most crucial and effective part of the life of an individual. It does not limited to a certain, group or race. It is the source of entertainment even for a child. The good values like forgiveness can also preach through the use of social media. The individual should upload the content about the positive impact of forgiveness and highlights the negative impact of taking revenge in the society. The visuals or viewers see the values of forgiveness then he will try to adopt it. According to Andrew Johnson, "The social media leaves a print in human mind which urge him to do the same action as he has seen earlier." It plays like a set of rule which control the action of of human beings. In this way, the preaching about the value of forgiveness can easily propagate in society through the use of social media. From children to elders.

The first institution of developing the habit of an individual is the home. The children's action are controlled by parents' behaviour. The parents play an essential role in the building of good characters of the children. They should teach them about the value of forgiveness and tell them the examples of the Holy prophet (P.B.U.H). and also adopt the habit of forgiveness and perform it in the front of children. As according to the theory of the learning and enforcement, the child does the same action as the parents do. The child's action is the imitation of their parents' action. Therefore, parents should perform their role for the building of

of the good character of the children.

To be curt, we the habit of forgiveness is indeed the superb value, which brings the happiness, prosperity and easiness in the life of human beings. It also stays a man healthy and shuns him to do wrong deeds. It also makes good relationship with other human beings. It brings success for both external and internal life of the human beings. The revenge is the destructive feelings. It brings distraction, anarchy and chaos in society. Man also becomes the victim of various mental and physical diseases like depression etc. It does not bring prosperity in the society. The element of forgiveness can propagate through the counselling, social media & the propagation of the value of forgiveness and teaching of the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H.)

Family plays an essential role in the propagation of the true values of forgiveness. As Therefore, the society should efforts to inject the vedue of forgiveness in the life of human beings through these institutions because.

"Forgiveness is like a healer and revenge is like a termites"
