QUESTION: 5

ANSWER

INTRODUCTION:

Minority groups are part of every society. In the western society, minorities were not treated like the majority groups. However, Islam lays great emphasis on the rights of minorities. Islam has provided minorities the religious, political, economic and legal rights.

Definition of Minorities by the UN:

"Those people which are numerically inferior are called minorities."

- * They are numerically inferior on the basis of religion, language and ethnicity.

Struggle for Minority Rights in the West

In the west, minorities were treated with disdain. It was after the Congress of Vienna (1815), Congress of Paris and Congress of Berlin (1878) that minorities were given some rights. It means, minorities got their rights after several years of struggle.

Status of Minorities in Islam

In Islam, minorities are regarded as "Zimmis" which means "Responsibilities of the State".

✓ "Those who killed a promisee (Zimmi) in the Muslim land will not smell the fragrance of paradise for 50 years."

A GREAT EMPHASIS ON MINORITY RIGHTS IN ISLAM

① Religious Rights of Minorities in Islam

② Freedom to profess their Religion:

Islam gives to minorities

the freedom to freely profess their religion.

"There is no
compulsion in religion." [Al-Quran]
