

QUESTION : 03

ANSWER:

Topic:

Decreasing Enrollments in Pakistani Universities: Causes and Consequences

Outline:

good very good all the best luck

1 Introduction:

1.1. Overview about decreasing enrollments in Pakistani Universities

2. Thesis Statement:

Enrollments in Pakistani Universities has been decreasing continuously due to the flawed system of education and breaching student trust. Though, it has serious consequences on country's development.

However, it would be rectified by following some effective recommendations.

3. Causes of decreasing enrollment in Pakistani Universities :

3.1. Lack of resources and proper facilities that attracts student interest toward Universities

E.g AUST University, Abbottabad.

3.2. Outdated Curriculum

Outdated books in Sindh Universities.

3.3. Cramming System of Learning.

3.4. No proper practical Learning methodology

3.5. High fee Structures.

For Instance, LUMS, NUST Universities fee in Lacs.

3.6. Ignore scholarships and student assistance in studies by Universities and by government.

3.7. Universities are very far from student residential area.

For example, Quawadar University in Lahore will facilitate the student of Lahore despite student in Quawadar.

3.8. Bad reputation of Universities, breach student trust in Universities

3.9. Less Learning, but more scandals
For example, In Peshawar University leaked photos and videos of students.

4. Consequences by decreasing enrollments in Pakistani Universities :

4.1. Lack of skills leads to unemployment.

In Pakistan, millions of students graduates annually but few of them get lucrative jobs due to their skills.

4.2. Reduced students critical thinking by continuously cramming based education.

4.3. Brain Drain

Annually million of students move to foreign countries for further studies or for employment purposes.

4.4. No development in country status

4.5. Gender gap produces flawed management in family.

4.6. Students are deprived from good communication skills

4.7. Reduce social interaction.

4.8. No good leaders would made for good governance, if missed the chance of University education organization, relevancy and clarity

5. Recommendations to make more enrollment in Pakistani Universities :

5.1. Provide skilled base and practical education

5.2. Affordable fee with good reputation

5.3. Proper accountability on students.

6. Conclusion :

The most famous saying, "Education is the key to success" enlighten the importance of educational institutions including school, college and most importantly 'Universities'. Many developed countries have achieved progress and prosperity by their university students' contribution.

Alas! In Pakistan student enrolments in universities has been frequently declining. As Pakistan is developing countries with 82 billion population, among these millions are student that hampered their enrolments in Universities.

However, declining ratio of enrolments in Universities is due to the following reasons, that are lack of resourceful and skilled educational system, declining trust in Universities.

The flawed system of universities educational system have serious consequences in Pakistan's development. However, it would be corrected by following some effective recommendation that will attract student interest for universities studies.

The essay will enlighten the major causes and consequences of declining universities enrolment in Pakistani Universities and some recommendation to make more enrolment in universities.

good in basic sentences please avoid writing in passive please