

English Essay

Name : Maham Hameed

Roll # : 075-LSS26-NOA-RWP2-online-5051

Batch : (RWP-075)

Assignment # : 102

Reforestation as Global Urgency

Thesis statement:-

Deforestation has become a global emergency because it worsens climate change, ^{produces} food and water insecurity, threatens humans livelihoods, decline in agriculture, increases natural disasters, causes economic loss, promotes global inequality, contributes to soil erosion, and also increases the dependence on imports for a country, taking immediate action against deforestation is important to avoid lasting damage.

Pathways to Pakistan's Prosperity

Thesis statement:-

The pathways to Pakistan's prosperity are rooted in fostering education specially for women, bringing digital and technological revolution, economical growth, political stability, building a strong judiciary system, financial stability at individual ^{as well as} ~~also~~ national level, building dams and canals, a system to control disasters, growth in sports sector, promoting tourism developments, encouraging moral integrity, and women and youth empowerment programs.

Impact of Social Media on Teenager's Mental Health

Thesis Statement

The endless appeal of social media is quietly molding teenager's moods, thoughts, and self worth. Consuming more time on scrolling social media apps causes mood swings and anxiety in their personality. The major effect/impact of social media is that it badly disturbs the sleep schedule of teenagers. They cannot properly focus on their regular tasks, which results in losing self-worth. Their priorities start changing like they think getting likes, followers, and comments will create a pressure on society to accept their abilities. Addiction of social media increases dopamine level.

in young minds. Exposure to harmful content worsens their mental health, also spread hate in society. The negative ^{or} use of social media influences the teenager's minds in the result of poor academic performance. Indeed there are advantages also, but the fact is that disadvantages ~~are~~ surpass the advantages of social media usage.

Role of Technology in Modern Education

Thesis Statement

Technology plays a transformative role in shaping modern education, by providing global access to learning, personalized learning, collaboration between learning and industrial platforms, improves digital literacy, by providing skill development programs, ~~promote~~ cost effective education, provides instant updates on information, opportunities at research platforms, adaptive learning, Online administration, and access to real time data.

