

Crisis Of Good governance in Pakistan: Need for reforms and institution building

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement : Good governance plays pivotal role in the progress, but Pakistan is facing with crisis of good governance in the form of no rule of law, political instability, poverty and inflation, security issues and nepotism. It needs reforms by maintaining rule of law, accountability, control corruption and encourage democracy.

2. Existing crisis of good governance in Pakistan

- Absence of rule of law
- Contradiction between state organs and national institutions
- Domestic and international political pressure
- Rising poverty and inflation
- Rampant extremism, terrorism and security concerns

Checked By:

Signature:

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

- f. Nepotism and institutional corruption
- g. Degradation of social structure
- 3. Necessary institutional reforms to restore good governance
 - a. Maintain rule of law
 - b. Strong and independent parliament
 - c. De-politicization of administration
 - d. Reduce poverty and control inflation
 - e. Strengthening of security institutions
 - f. Strict accountability and control corruption
 - g. Planned urbanization and population controlling measures.
- 4. Conclusion

Essay

As Winston Churchill
said "The price of greatness is responsibility"

Checked By: _____

Signature: _____

By examining the crisis of good governance in Pakistan, ~~it's crucial~~ it is crucial to consider the weight of responsibility that comes with leadership. Good governance is pivotal for the progress and prosperity of Pakistan. ~~It's difficult~~ it is difficult to make country more prosperous without change in the governance structure. There is a need of the hour to identify about the crisis of good governance in Pakistan. These crisis ~~leads~~ country towards chaos that creates imbalances in the society of Pakistan. The absense of rule of law is creating many evils in the society which is a crisis of good governance. Corruption and nepotism is also leading Pakistan towards lawlessness. ~~It creates~~ write appropriate words please inflation in the society that resulted into extremism and in the shape of crimes. It also exacerbates degradation of social structure in the society. So, good governance plays pivotal role in the progress, but Pakistan is facing with crisis of good governance in the form of no rule of law, political instability, poverty and inflation, security issues and nepotism. It needs reforms by maintaining rule of law, accountability, control corruption and encourage democracy.

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

To conclude, all above discussion ^{it has proven that} it is noticed that Pakistan has crisis of good governance that are hampering the progress of the country. In which contradiction between state organs and national institutions,

Checked By: _____

Signature: _____

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

domestic and international political pressure, security issues, and corruption is very common. These crisis needs a vibrant approach for establishing good governance in Pakistan. For this purpose, maintain rule of law, mitigate nepotism, strengthen democracy, encourage transparency and accountability are good solutions. In brief, there is a need to make country more prosperous through good governance, that needs to implement all above necessary institutional reforms.

plz write more formal word choice and do write in official and formal manner please

Checked By: _____

Signature: _____