

Development of Commerce

Commerce, in the early ages, was difficult due to unsafe roads. But later, man's creativity made it feasible for everyone. In the beginning, communication was not easy and safe but slowly ~~nor~~, the government built paid roads through which trade became a Achievable. Despite many ~~of~~ challenges, the group ensured economic prosperity.

Mistakes identified.
Please include
the original
passage
in the pdf.