Syed Ahmad Khan and his honorable and bright minded son Syed Mahamood tried to adopt an attitude that they were equal and peer instead of attitude of subordinate and flattered, in front of British Imperialist government which was established by British rulers and adopted by Hindustan at that time. The incident of 1967 of Agra court was well known not only to mulism but also to all Hindustani nation. Syed Ahmad Khan got separation from the court because they had provided lower rank seats to Hindustanis as compared to British. Syed Ahmad Khan was going to be awarded with medal. Later on, the duty was sponsored to Merut's commissioner Williams that He presented medal to Syed Ahmad Khan at Qai Gark's Railway Station.
