U.S.- Israel attack Iran.

On 28, February 2026, U.S. Israel attacked Iran with military missiles. This attack created a tension in Iran. More than, 1500 people were killed, 18551 people were injured, and also the assassination of the Supreme Leader "Ali Khamenei". As a result, Iran responded with multiple missiles attacks, and targeting Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, and other countries in the Middle East. Today, this conflict became a issue at a global and regional level. However, most of the countries are affected by this conflict. The reason is that Iran closed the strait of Hormuz and stopped the supply of oil, which is creating oil disruptions issues between countries. Brent Crude Oil increased from $65 to more than $100 per barrel. Moreover, countries like Oman and Qatar who often talk about the issue of Iran and the United States. In this situation, they are not taking any action and remaining silent. On the other hand, Pakistan has taken a decision to maintain peace at regional and global level. The Prime Minister of Pakistan communicated with the U.S. and Iran about this issue, because Pakistan has a strong relation with the U.S, as well as <sup>same</sup> cultural with Iran. Hence, Pakistan can become a mediator between both countries. At the same time, Pakistan's military also support the leaders through effective communication and military channels. In contrast, the U.S. demonstrates 15-point peace plan, including Iran dismantling the all nuclear program, and stopping uranium enrichment. They are also focused on keeping the strait of Hormuz open, but Iran restricted all plans. Most of the scholars believe / gave opinion that the U.S. is playing a Double game. On one side, they put pressure on Iran through sanctions and threats. On the second side, they want to negotiate with Iran through via Pakistani channels. In conclusion, the U.S. want short-term negotiation, and is trying to avoid a long-term war.
