

16-04-2026

Features of Good Governance

Good governance is all about doing the right things in right way. Good governance is characterized by eight core features.

Participation; ensuring all citizens men and women have equal right in decision making.

Rule of law; Focused on citizens human right and protecting them. Good governance is not just rule of law, but in good governance transparency, responsiveness, consensus oriented, effectiveness, efficiency, accountability, and equity.

In the 1990s, the World Bank the first international institution to adopt the concept of good governance into the arrangements for developing countries. Good governance's make planings for long term development for nation, e.g. Vision 2025 Pakistan focuses on economic growth and modernization.

Good governance is an ideal concept for states to achieve its goals.