

Woman Empire

Women women empowerment Empire is essential for the progressive and prosperity of ~~any~~ nation. It refers to granting women Equal rights, opportunities and participation in social, political and economical spheres. When women are educated and economically independent, when they contribute scientifically to national development and poverty reduction. History provides exemplify example of empowered women <sup>leaders</sup> such as Benazir Bhutto, who play a crucial role in Pakistan political landscape. Moreover, Empowering women strengthens families improve child education and promote social Justice. Without Gender Equality, no society can achieve sustainability development. Therefore, Women empowerment is not merely a social but a prerequisite for ~~national~~ sustainability and growth.