

Dialogue: (Teacher scolding a careless student)

Teacher: Ahmed, why are you late again? This is the third time this week.

Ahmed: I'm sorry, sir. I missed the bus today.

Teacher: That is just an excuse. A responsible student always reaches on time.

Ahmed: Sir, it won't happen again.

Teacher: And where is your homework? Don't tell me you forgot that too.

Ahmed: Sir... I couldn't complete it. I was busy yesterday.

Teacher: Busy doing what? Playing games, I suppose?

Ahmed: Yes sir... a little.

Teacher: Studies should be your first priority. If you waste time like this, you will regret it later.

Ahmed: You are right, sir. I promise I will be more careful from now on.

Teacher: Good. Now sit down and focus on your lesson.

THE TEACHER ANGRILY ASKED INQUIRED AHMED FOR BEING LATE AGAIN AND SAID IT WAS THIRD TIME THAT HE CAME LATE THIS WEEK

Teacher inquired Ahmed and ~~expressed~~ ^{asked} the reason of his being late because it's becoming part of his routine. Ahmed ~~apologized~~ ^{AND SAID THAT HE MISSED HIS BUS} because he missed his bus. Teacher censured ~~his~~ ^{him} excuse that a responsible student always reaches on time. Ahmed ~~was~~ ^{had} censured that he would not be late again. Hearing that, teacher ~~asked~~ ^{asked} where ~~was~~ ^{was} his homework. ~~He~~ ^{He} ~~didn't~~ ^{didn't} say that he had forgotten that he had forgotten. Ahmed felt embarrassed ~~and~~ ^{and} said that he was busy so he didn't complete it. Teacher censured him once again and assumed that he was playing games. Ahmed accepted his fault. Teacher suggested that studies should be his first priority. ~~Even~~ ^{Even} if he wasted his time, he won't achieve anything. Ahmed understood the point and ~~was~~ ^{was} advised to be careful from now on. Teacher ~~had~~ ^{had} appreciated him and said to sit down and focus on the lesson.

3/5