

THESIS: 1

Reforestation is a global urgency because it becoming an alarming situation to the world because the expansion of urbanization, agriculture, greenhouse gas emissions, industrialization is a rapid destruction of a human activity which led to devastating environmental consequences. Deforestation has accelerated climate change, reduced biodiversity and disrupted water cycle. As the world is threaten by environmental degradation reforestation is crucial to mitigate these challenges and make the earth healthy again. Individuals must collectively prioritize the planting, international organizations, local government to balance and for the secure sustainable future for coming generation.

THESIS: 2

The Pathways to Pakistan's prosperity requires comprehensive reform in governance and political stability, economic growth and fiscal discipline, human development, modernization of agriculture, industrial growth and energy, technological advancement social justice and poverty, national interests, accountability these all reform can make Pakistan a better place to live.

THESIS: 3

Impact can be both positive and negative depends on usage pattern. Positive usage enhance self expression and creativity, social connect, access to support and information, while negative impacts are cyberbullying, anxiety and depression, sleep disruption, beauty standards, addiction and reduced productivity. Keeping the negative impact the role of parents and school is crucial. we should go for the healthy and balanced way.

Date _____

THESIS: 4

Technology in modern education plays an important role as it provides easy access to information, online and distance learning, skill development for the future, interactive and engaging learning, personalized learning. But just like every coin has two sides technology also presents certain challenges. digital divide between urban and rural areas, high cost for device and internet, distraction from social media and gaming, reduced face to face interaction.