Helen: Mr West, what's happened to John?

Mr West: He's left the company

Helen: Why has he done that?

Mr West: He asked me for a rise but I didn't give it to him.

Helen: Why didn't you give him a rise?

Mr West: Because he was lazy.

Helen: Has he found another job?

Mr West: Yes, he is working in a film company.

Helen: What is his salary like?

Mr West: I think he earns quite a lot.

Helen: Does he like the new job?

Mr West: I don't know.

A hungry lion slipped out of the forest into a barnyard. One evening, when he saw a plump donkey, his mouth began to water. But just as he was ready to jump on the donkey, a rooster crowed. He was frightened, and so turned away into the forest again. "Hey, look at that cowardly lion!" the donkey brayed to the rooster. "I am going to chase him," and the donkey ran after the lion. "Wait!" the rooster shouted, "You don't know that," but it was too late. The lion had turned, and killed the donkey. "Ah! my poor, stupid friend," the rooster said as he watched the lion eating the donkey. "The lion was not afraid of you, but of my crowing."
