Jack: Hello, Swarup! Swatting away as usual. Come out, man; shut up your old books, and come and have a game of tennis.

Swarup: I am sorry I cannot do that, Jack. The examination is drawing near, and I want every hour I can get for study.

Jack: Oh! Hang all examinations! I do not worry about mine. What is the use of them, any way?

Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

Jack greeted Swarup and after criticizing his obsession with books asked him to close them and invited him to play tennis with him. Swarup drew his attention toward near Examination but Jack did not worried about it. Swarup told him importance of examination and degree also share his own viewpoint for graduation. Jack repeatedly criticised him and said that you may get normal government job, or even that would not be available. Swarup did not much think about his viewpoint and said he got education for shake of knowledge and improve cognitive skills not only for jobs.
