

The Year 2025 is turning point for Pak

- I. Introduction
- II. Issues Pakistan was plagued with prior to 2025
- III. The Year 2025 is turning point for Pak.
 - a. After 24 years, Pakistan has achieved primary account surplus.
 - b. The growth of about 2% has been observed in GDP of country's economy.
 - c. Revival of foreign relations with world hegemon, that is USA.
 - d. Strengthened its ~~se~~ national security by signing strategic defense pact with KSA
 - e. Revival of talks between Pakistan and Afghanistan to address terrorism
 - f. The country has observed relative political stability this year
 - g. Pakistan has successfully defended itself against India in May 2025 conflict.

h. The country has managed to fall out of regional isolation

i. Passage of 27th amendment to address the weakness of governance system.

IV. Areas where improvement could further benefit the country

a. Addressing the gender disparity; the recent Gender report ~~place~~ has placed country in the bottom

b. Better management of flood disaster; the recent 2025 floods have impacted the country highly adversely.

V. Conclusion.