

DATE: _____

DAY: _____

Title:

University Education and Its Scope

The aim of university education is the socialization of masses.

It is not the birth place of numerous professionals: artists, scientists and conquerors of nations. Similarly, it is also not the room of various experiments.

But, the main aim of university is to socialize the people and inculcate the national sense. It should train the pupils to judge the right and wrong. Hence, it makes society and its members to maintain the national integration.

Total words: 240

Precis words: 79