

Describe the social responsibilities of state in islam. Describe the social system of islam and how can it help to address the problems of modern civilisation.

1) INTRODUCTION:-

An Islamic state is a welfare state

- Ali Akbar, Islam and its meaning

This quote of Ali Akbar tells about what it means to be an Islamic state. An Islamic state has to be a welfare state having social responsibilities such as granting justice, maintenance of human rights, creating economic equalities and so on. The Islamic social system is based on mutual consultations, zakat and so on, all of which helps to address the problems of modern civilization through invoking the traits of unity, cohesion individual responsibility and collective responsibility as well.

2) A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF A STATE

A state is a social contract between the people living their

The state has to provide the citizens with protection

This raises the trust of the people on the state

Love of the state invoked in the heart of people

Collective growth between the state and the people achieved

An ideal state is achieved by fulfilling social responsibilities

Description:-

The following flow chart shows, how, through social responsibilities fulfillment an ideal state is achieved which focuses on the welfare of the people.

P.T.O

3) DESCRIBING THE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF STATE IN ISLAM

3.1) Creating a society free from crime to foster peace

The social responsibility of an Islamic society is to create a safe environment away from evil. This could be invoked by strong implementation of the law, equal for everyone. The prophet (PBUH) said, "Even if my daughter did it, I would have punished her". Such idea of justice is needed to establish peace in the society.

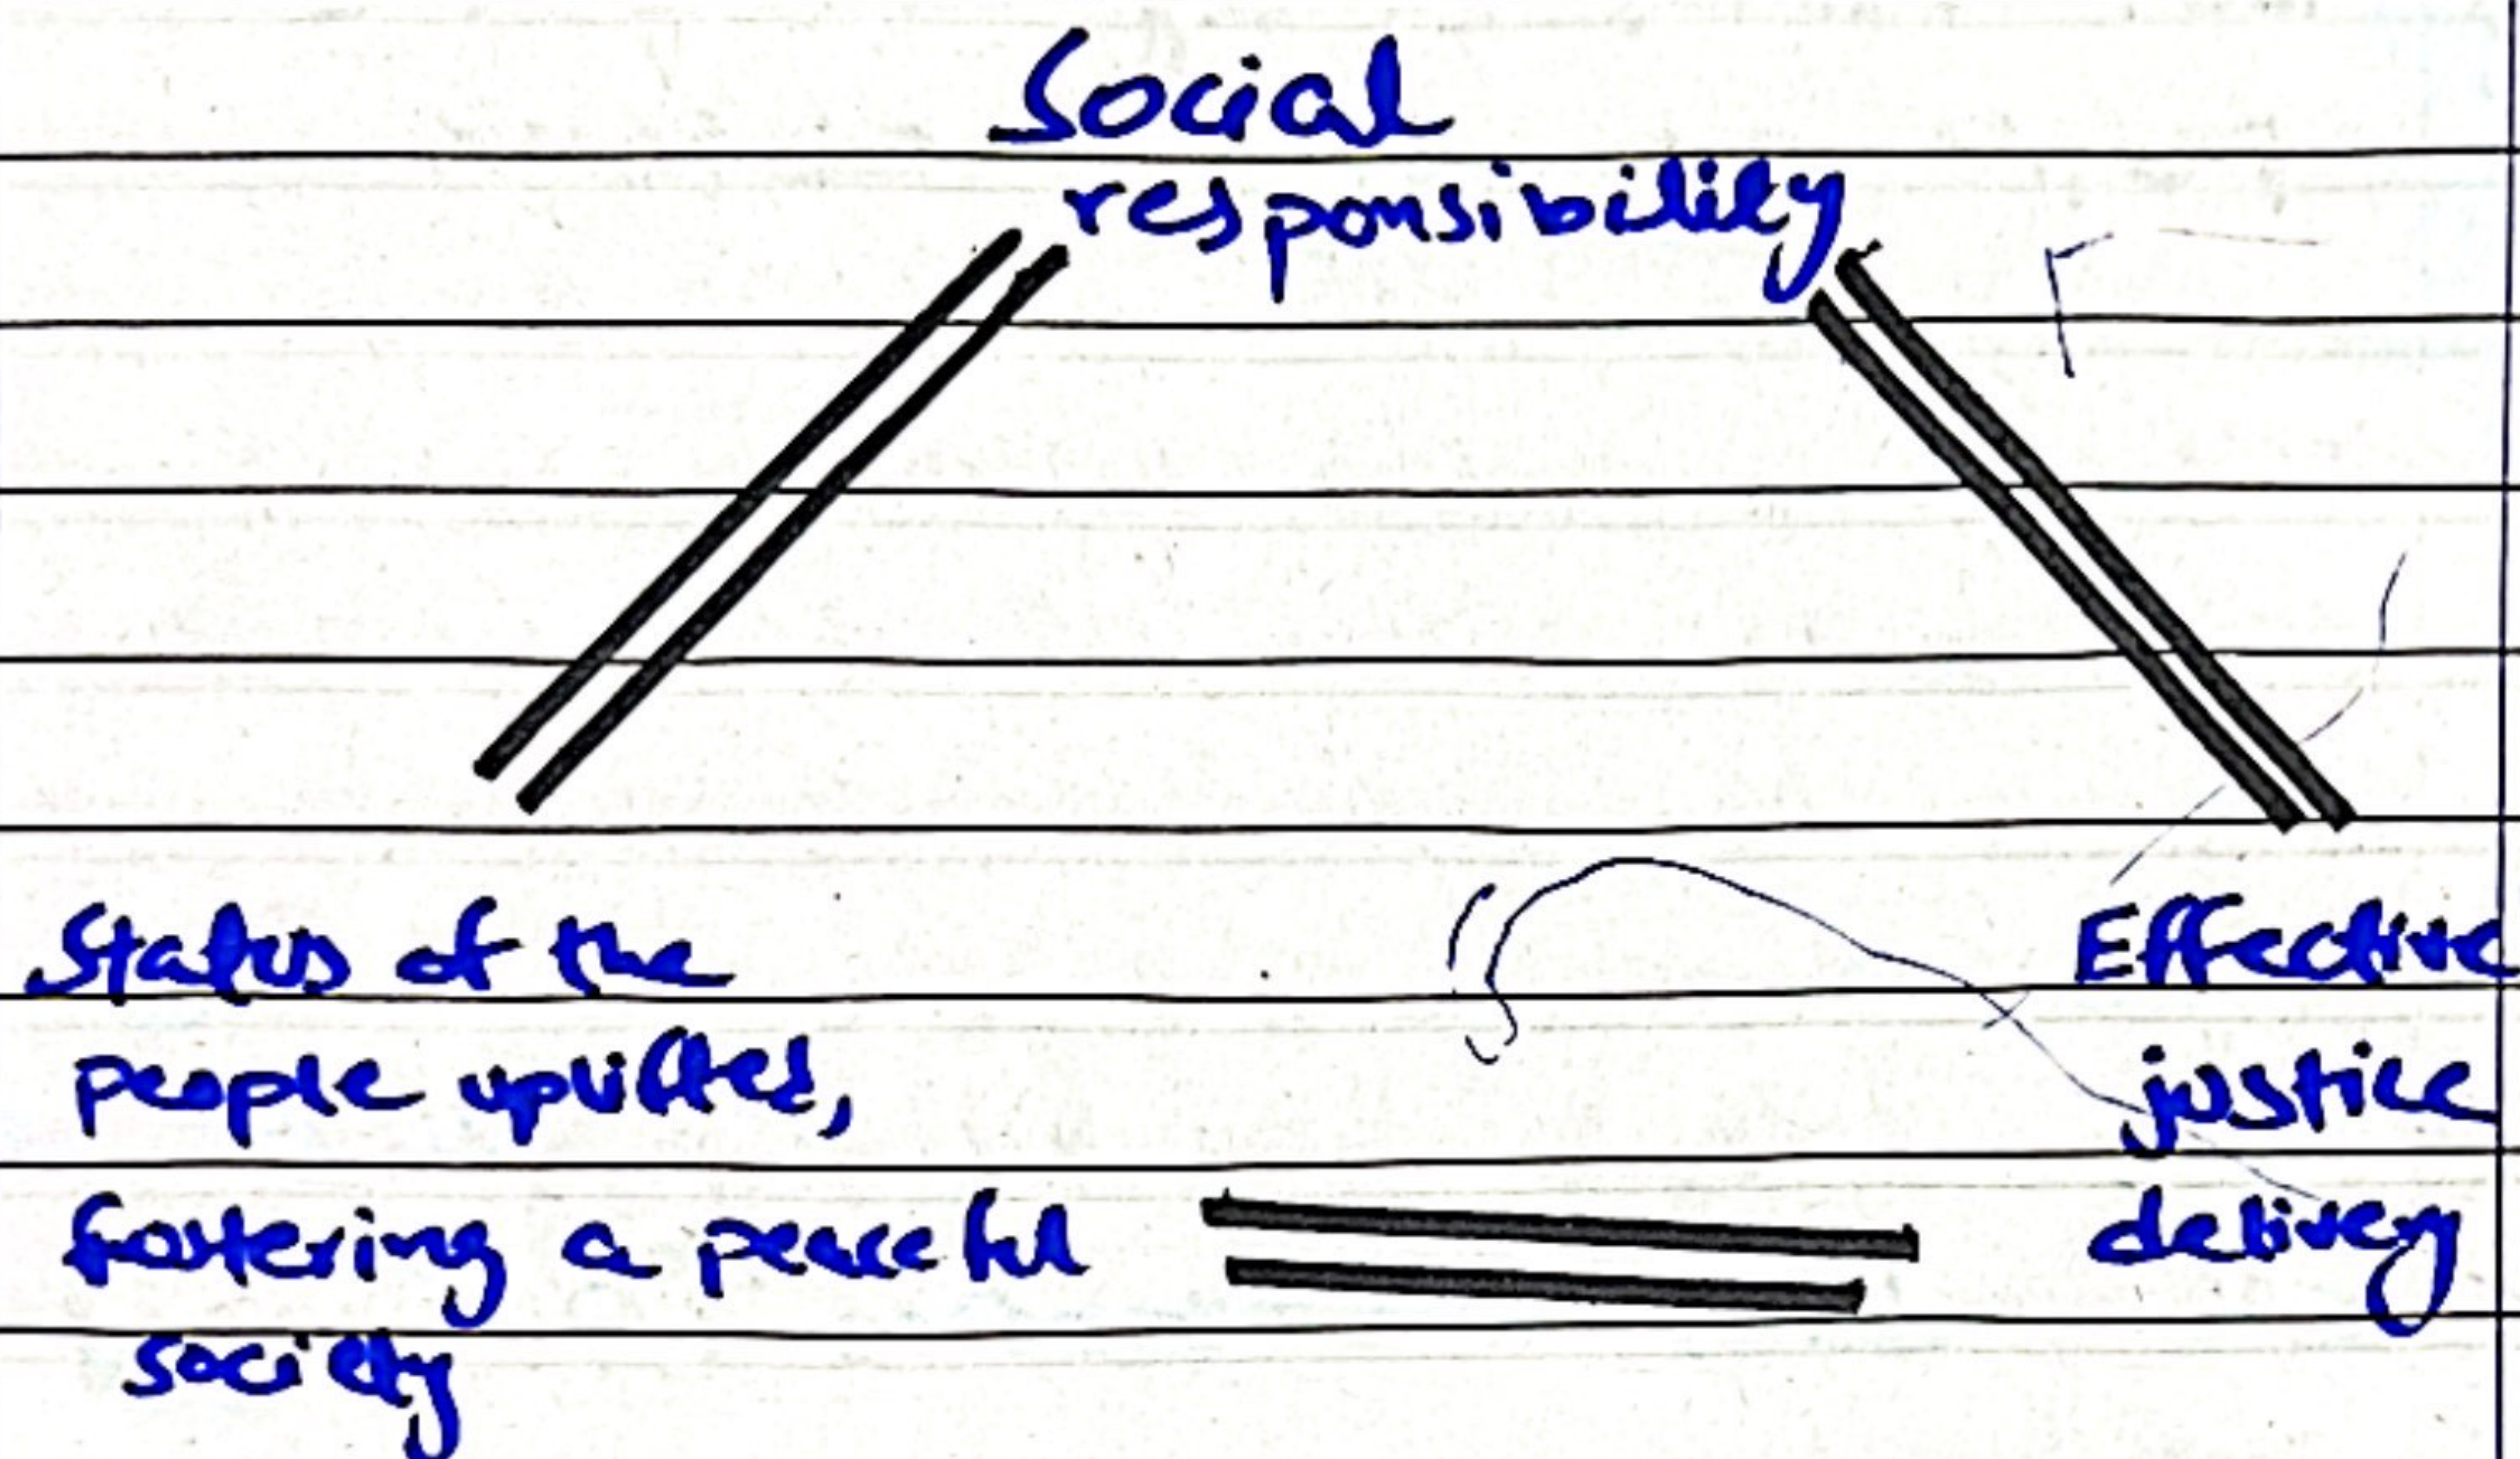

3.2) Providing economic aid to the citizens in need through Bait-ul-Maal

It is the social responsibility of an Islamic state to establish bait-ul-maal to aid the needy. The prophet (PBUH) also established bait-ul-maal to aid the needy people which aided to uplift the social status of the citizens.

3.3) Deliver absolute justice in the state without any discrimination

The social responsibility of an Islamic state is to deliver absolute justice to ensure everyone is given a safe space.

DESCRIPTION:-

This chart shows how the social responsibility of an Islamic state that delivers justice can foster peace and uplift the status of an individual.

3.4) Uplift the worries of the citizens through consultations

The social responsibility of an Islamic state is to curb the tensions of its people by consulting with them. "My ummah will never unite under a false consensus"

[Prophet PBUH] - This shows that consensus can bear fruit and is an essential responsibility of an Islamic state.

4) DESCRIBING THE SOCIAL SYSTEM OF ISLAM

4.1) Establishes unity among the people promoting co-existence

The Islamic social system promotes unity and awakens the traits of brotherhood in the people. The long term impact of which are a society driven by love and tolerance. And all Muslims are brothers [AL-Quran]

4.2) Strong relations with the family reducing depression in the Islamic social system

Islamic social system emphasizes on establishing good relations with the family. Man being a social animal requires such relations to live a life of happiness away from the abyss of the mind.

4.3) Strong bonding with the people of the community, empowering the nation

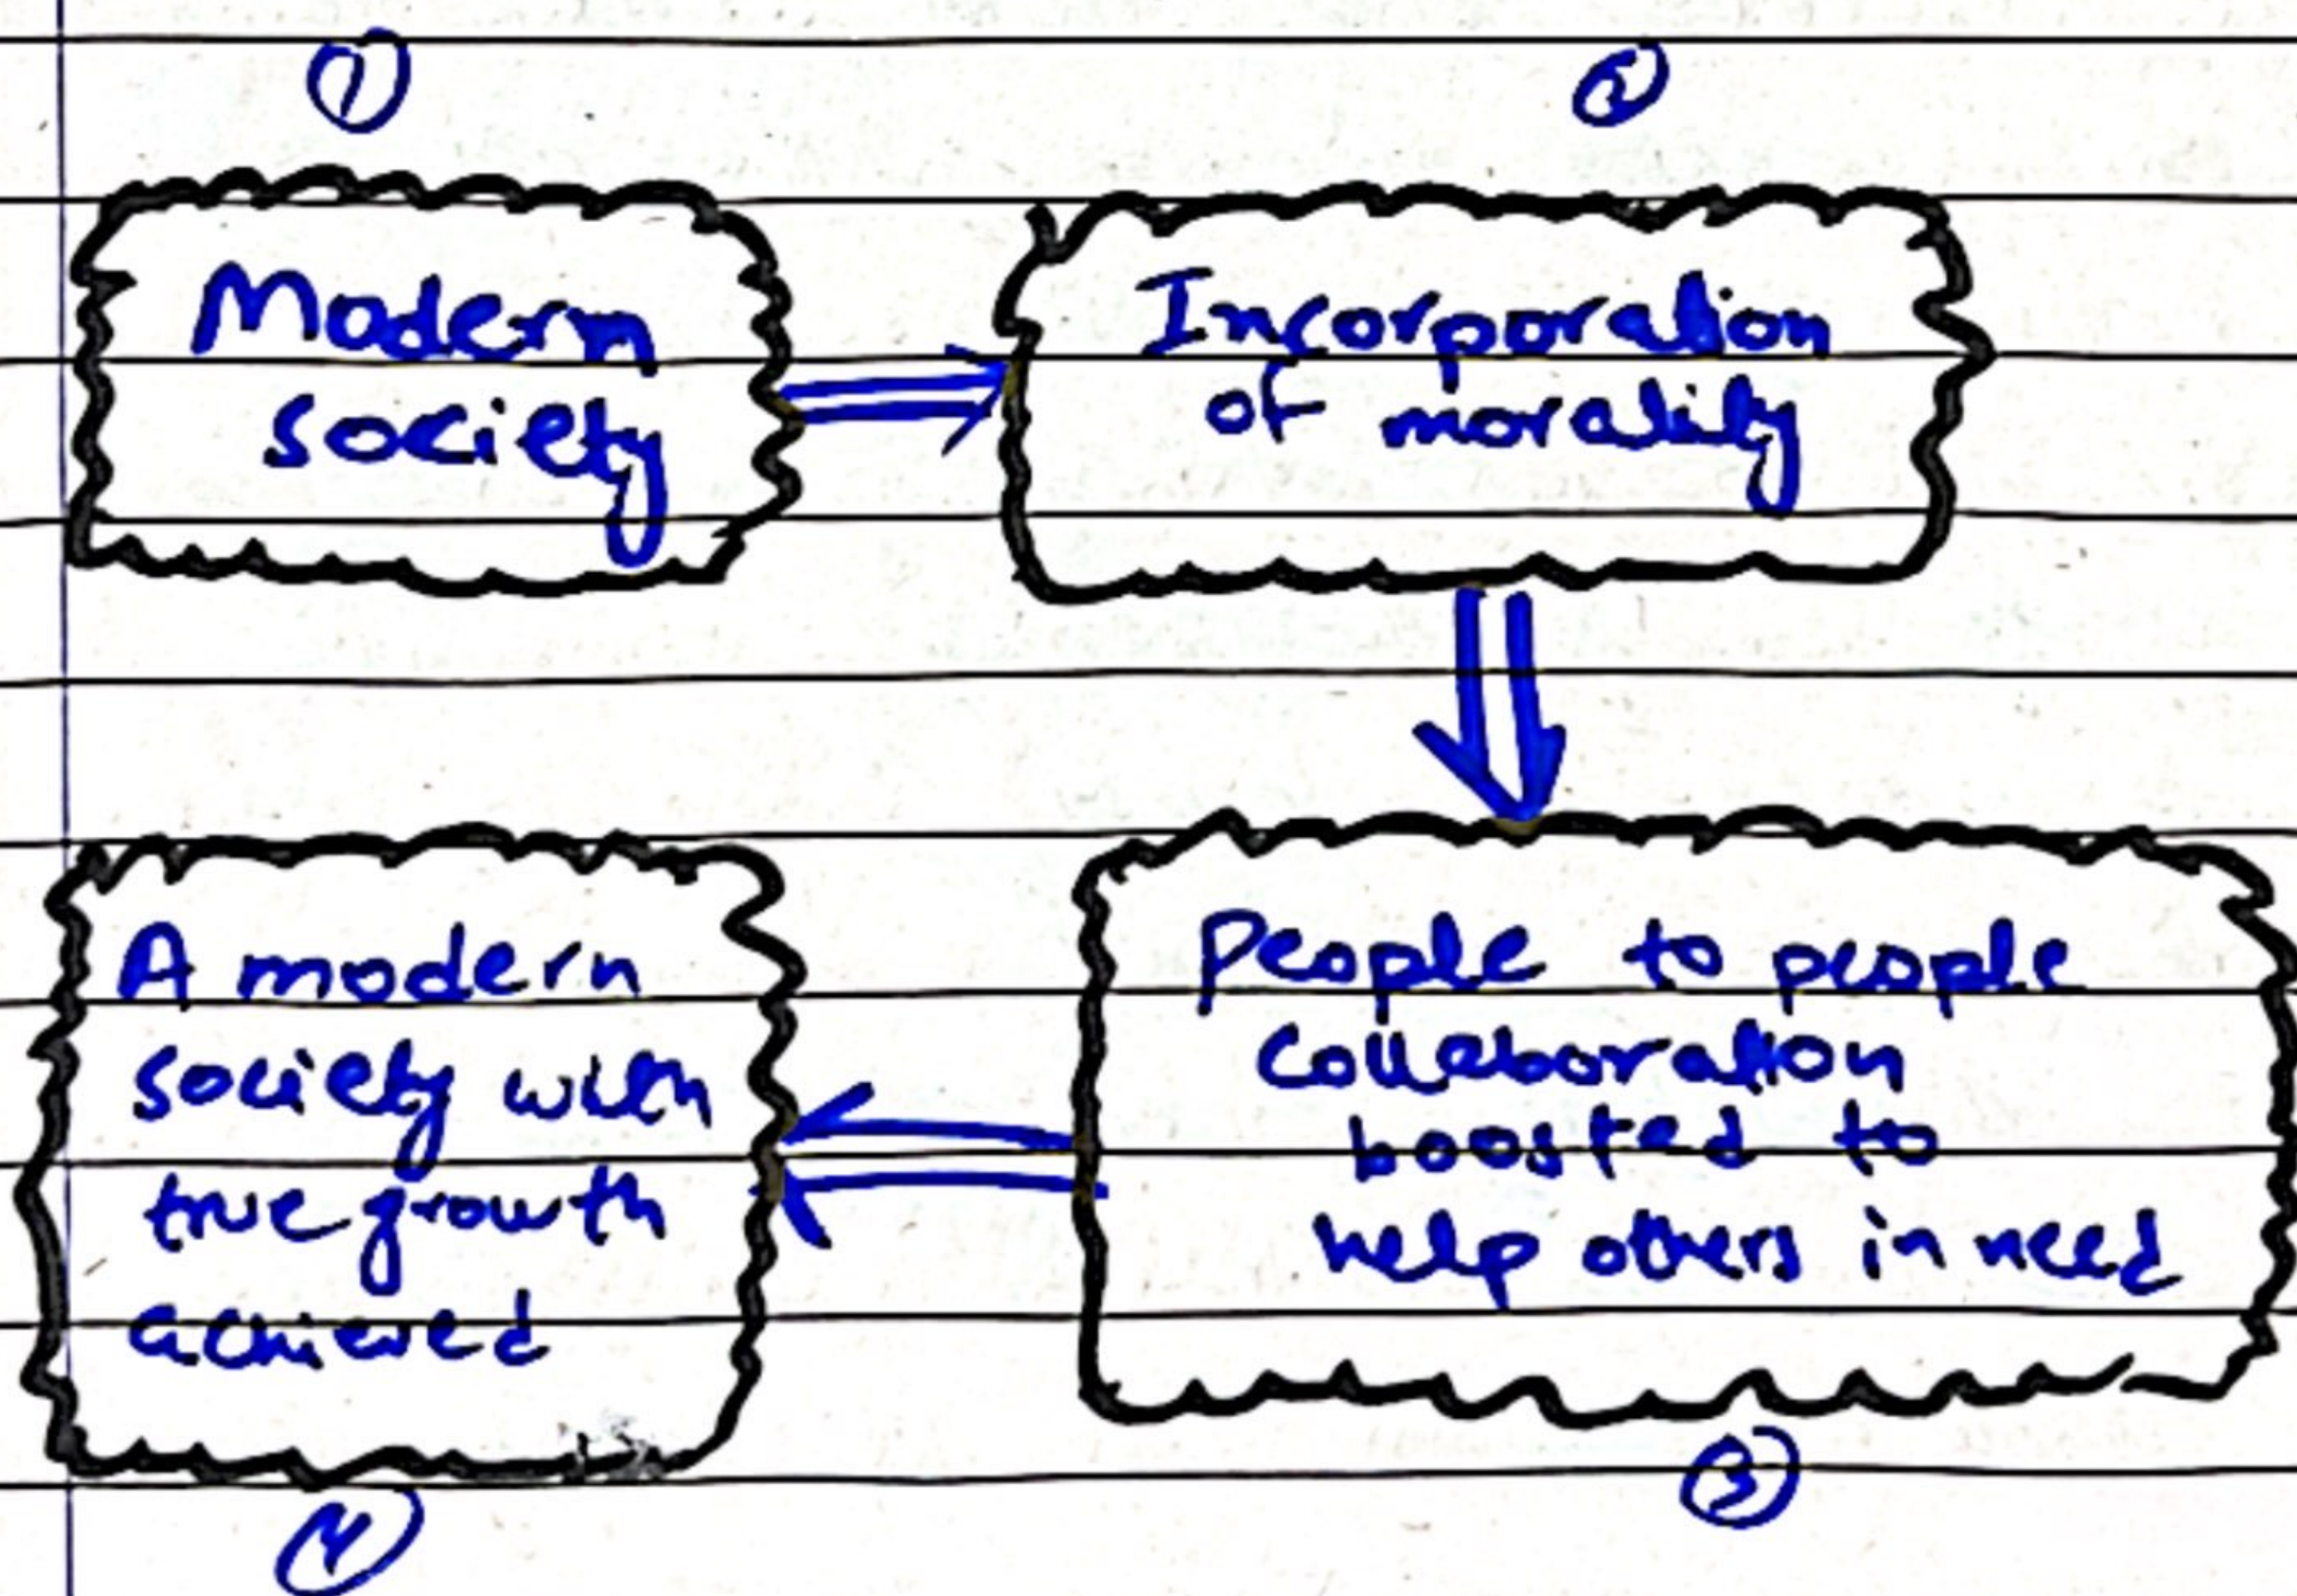

In the Islamic social system strong relation with the community is present.

He is not a true believer, whose neighbour sleeps with a

5) HOW CAN THE ISLAMIC SOCIAL SYSTEM ADDRESS THE PROBLEMS OF MODERN CIVILIZATION

5.1) Incorporation of harmony in the society ~ helping the people for uplifting the society

The adoption of the Islamic Social system will awaken the traits of morality in the people. This would force them to help the other people, leading to a society based on collectivism.

5.3) Prevailing of justice, curbing the violence in a modern civilization

The absolute justice in an Islamic society will ~~there~~ ascend the society to its true potential. And if you have to do justice, be honest (Prophet PBUH)

5.4) Creating economic equalities by prohibiting hoarding

The prohibition of hoarding and its incorporation in the modern civilization will create economic breathing rooms for the people, uplifting their social status.

6) CONCLUSION:-

To conclude, the social responsibilities of the Islamic state are creating a society free from crime, having balanced, effective justice etc. to uplift the society. Moreover, the Islamic social system promotes unity among the family, community to create a society driven by peace. Furthermore, by the incorporation of the Islamic social system in the modern civilization can promote absolute harmony in the society to reach global peace in the long run.

P.T.O