

Essay: If you Want to Change the World, Pick up your Pen and Write

Outline:

A. Introduction

1. "The pen is mightier than the sword." EB Lytton
2. Power of pen. It brings changes in the world
3. Thesis Statement

B. How Pen is Capable of Changing the World

1. Changes people's manners;
  - a) Pen differentiates between right and wrong
  - b) Reforming people's actions through writings
2. Improves people's way of thinking;
  - a) Positive writings bring masses towards Positivity
  - b) Highlighting positive aspects of world
3. Makes world a place of peace;
  - a) writings against social evils
  - b) Role of pen of journalists
4. Inculcating sense of responsibility;
  - a) Responsible citizens change society
5. Helps in true understanding of religion;
  - a) creates sense of brotherhood in the world
  - b) prevents religious extremism
6. Uplifting social statuses;
  - a) Education improves people's social standing
7. Promoting cooperation instead of competition;
  - a) 'Man as a social animal' - Plato's writings
8. Conserves natural habitat;
  - a) Ecological writings sharing insights to save environment

well organized and quite relevant

9. Strengthening Patriotism;
  - a) Love for country as pre-requisite for Social stability and prosperity
10. Helps in approaching better job opportunities;
  - a) Literate person, being capable of performing any job
11. Ensures Social justice.
  - a) Pen, ~~exposing oppressive actions~~ does not hide any oppression.
12. Converts common citizens into civic participants;
  - a) Newspaper writings enhancing public's political awareness
13. Highlighting better ways of governance
  - a) Changing people's fate
  - b) public-friendly policies of the govt
14. Providing peoples to way of expressing feelings;
  - a) Autobiographies of famous personalities
  - b) In the lines of Five by Penaij Mutharaf try to write in formal words and better expression

C. Conclusion

---