Title: Role of Poverty in Civilizational Development

Indent the paragraph

People lament poverty as a great evil as if only wealth brings contentment in life. However, happiness is felt more in the house of poor than ^{that of} the rich. Sadly, ~~the~~ children of the rich, raised by servants, remain oblivious to what they have missed in life. The poor man's house is filled with pureness and happiness as they always support and take care of ^{each other} ~~each other~~. History proves that great men were born poor. Presently, it is a universal desire to eradicate poverty. ~~Although~~, luxury should be eliminated, as poverty is that seed in soil that would help grow our civilization higher.
