

Corruption of Pakistan:-

Corruption became a major issue of Pakistan. It is happening with no accountability on political leaders, not strong law enforcement on corruption. Mostly it is taken through bribe in every department of Pakistan. No transparency on budget and public spendings. More ever bureaucracy of Pakistan is also involve in taking bribe on projects. Pakistan should be tackle this issue, through making strong law enforcement, sustainable accountability of politicians and also Bureaucrats.

Therefore Pakistan's Judiciary should be transparent and also they should be taken strong stance against corruption. Further more Investigation departments like Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) and National Accountability Board (NAB) should work without fear of politician. This is the way we can tackle the corruptions.
