Terrorism in Pakistan

Terrorism is one of the most serious challenges, which many countries faced in today's modern world. It involves the use of violence and fear to achieve political, economic and ideological goals. Over the past twenty year, Pakistan has experienced/suffered greatly from terrorism. There are different factors such as religious extremism, Regional conflicts, and weak governance cause the terrorism in Pakistan. However, terrorist groups targeted civilians, military institutions, security forces, government institutions, educational institutions, in order to spread fear and instability in society. One of the most tragic example is the attack on the Army public school peshawar attack, which shocked the entire nation. Despite of these challenges, Pakistan has taken strong measure to fight against terrorism. Therefore unity, education, strong security policies, and promotion of tolerance to remove terrorism from the country.