

① Reforestation as a Global Urgency

Reforestation has become a global urgency because it is essential for climate stabilization, preserving biodiversity and ecosystem, economic sustainability, disaster management, and human survival.

② Pathways to Pakistan's Prosperity

Pakistan can achieve prosperity by using reforms in the governance system, human capital development, economic diversification, regional sustainability, technological advancements, promoting education and sustainable resource management.

③ Impact of Social Media on Teenager's Health

Social Media has drastic impacts on teenager's health; mentally by rising risk of anxiety, depression, physically by making them obese and causing eye-strain, socially by vanishing emotional development and face-to-face communication and also psychologically by intellectual growth.

(4) Role of Technology in Modern Education

Technology enhances modern education system by providing access to global learning system and resources, bridging geographical and socioeconomic gaps while supporting teachers (by) with innovative skills, grading system and professional developmental resources.