

Pakistan Emerging Multipolar World Order: Opportunities and Risks for Pakistan

Outline

01. Introduction

02. Opportunities for Pakistan Emerging Multipolar World Order

- 2.1 Multipolar World end single power veto over Pakistan.
- 2.2 COP28 Climate Fund converts Pakistan's Vulnerability.
- 2.3 Pakistan IT exports Crossing $ 32 billion in 2024 attracted Gulf and Chinese tech investors.
- 2.4 Pakistan build sovereign trade relationships on its own terms.
- 2.5 Multipolar debt Competition between China and Gulf states Pakistan power to reject exploitative IMF conditions.
- 2.6 SCO membership transforms Central Asian Markets
- 2.7 Pakistan's $6 trillion mineral wealth becomes true national asset

03. Risks for Pakistan Emerging Multipolar World Order.

- 3.1 Strategic location between attracts foreign interference

- 3.2 Pakistan structurally lacks capacity to honor.
- 3.3 Nuclear rivalry between Pakistan and India intensifies under multipolar pressure.
- 3.4 Weak institutions guarantee multipolar dividends are captured by ruling elite.
- 3.5 Forced to choose between American and Chinese technology system.
- 3.6 Political instability makes unreliable ~~power~~ partner causing major powers.
- 3.7. Climate Vulnerability ranking Pakistan 8th most affected country.

04. Conclusion.