

NATIONAL OFFICERS ACADEMY[®]

PCS Course

PCS (Provincial Civil Services)

This exam is held every year without any fixed number of seats in the province. This number of seats varies every year, according to the vacancies and requirements. The seats are under the command and control of the state government and a recruited aspirant cannot be transferred to another state. Basically, PCS is a board responsible for:

Announcing vacancies for numerous posts

Selecting aspirants for declared posts on merit

Selecting civil servants for their respective provinces (bps-9 to bps-20)

1 Month PCS Preparation (Single Paper)

NOA offers this one-month course online only for the positions that are posted in the General Recruitment section at the Federal or Provincial levels, such as Assistant Commissioner NAB or Assistant Commissioner FIA, etc. It covers the course and complete preparation for the examination and after the student passes, NOA provides training for the interview process as well.

This course consists of a 1-day free seminar after which admissions follow on day 2 and on day 3 classes begin.
