

What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Answer:

The main difference between ~~human~~ these two fears is that human being fear of death is by hearing multiple ~~st~~ stories about the struggle and pain that precedes to death while, children's fear of darkness is increased by hearing different stories about ghosts and thieves.

What is a religious and sacred view of death?

Answer

Regarding death as a way of punishment for human beings' sins that human commits is taken as a religious and sacred view of death.

What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Answer

The painful experiences described by the Monks in their books are the physical torturing to one self for the purification of their soul and body.

What are the views of Seneca about death?

Answer:

The Roman Philosopher Seneca views ~~about~~ death <sup>as it</sup> is that, the ceremonies and the affairs happens after death makes the human fear more than the death itself do.

What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Answer

The facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise are the groans made by the surroundings, the undergoing disturbance in a dead body, the changing color of the body, mourning clothes and multiple rituals happening at that time makes death more horrible.