

Q1:

Ans: On the New Year we make list of resolutions. Mostly resolutions are very aspiring like, good behaviour with everyone, careful driving, and take dog for a walk every day. These resolutions take dedicated time to continue, and we do not have that much time. So, we fail in efforts for self improvement.

Q2:

Ans. The mistake most of us do is announcing our resolution to everybody. This create a sense of fear to fail and our own desire to do good for ourself is replaced. If we are unable to accomplish resolution, it makes us looser in front of others.

Q3

Ans: The writer did not announce his resolutions to anyone and kept to himself. And, he found a excuse to not carry out his resolutions on the first day, that was late night New Year party.
