Translation

History is full of successful people who commenced their life from the challenging conditions but persisted to become the most successful and well-known people in the world. Success, honor and fame are never served to you on a plate, only wealth can be served on a plate, there is a condition for that too, your ancestors must have property, then you will get wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly necessities but not happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades for a person to gain respect and only a moment to become controversial.
