

To Love Humanity is To Love God

One night, Abu Bin Adham woke up and saw an angel. The angel was writing names of God-lovers. Abu's name was not on the list. He requested the angel to write his name as a human-lover. The next night, angel again appeared with a list of those whom God loved. Abu's name was at the top of the list.

Original passage: 178
words in precis: 59