Q1- Why most of us fail in our efforts for our self-improvement?

According to the author, most of us fail in our efforts at self-improvement because of our unrealistic plans for achieving the goals. The author says that neither do we prioritize these plans nor give enough amount of time to execute them. Thus, that is why most of us fail in our efforts for self improvement.

Q2- Why is it a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody?

Ans: It is a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because when we do not fulfil our targets on time and not implement our resolutions practically, then it will make us look foolish in front of the people. That's why resolutions should not be made public if we ultimately have to fall in the trap of our old habits.
