History is filled with successful people, who started off their life with extremely hard circumstances, but are now known as one of the most & successful people in the world.

Success, respect and fame can never be served to one on a plate. Only wealth can be, that too on a condition of ones ancestors have assets which they can pass down. With money one can buy the luxuries of life but not happiness. Sometimes it takes decades to earn respect, but just a moment to get insulted or to be a controversy.
