Ans 1) The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that, however, the fear of both is increased by the stories they are told, but children's fear is due to the ghosts and thieves, whereas, human beings' fear is due to the agony of dying man.

Ans 2) The religious and sacred view of death is of afterlife. When a person dies he/she is passed onto the another world. ~~Also~~ It is also when the human being fears being punished for the sin he/she committed in this world.

Ans 3) The painful experiences that the Monks have written in their books are about the infliction of physical tortures upon themselves for the sake of purification.

Ans 4) The views of Seneca about death are that people are more afraid of the circumstances and ceremonies ~~of~~ of death than the death itself.
