

Date
17 April - 23

Passage comprehension (Test II)

Q1 What are the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that human beings' fear of death is increased by witnessing the hardships faced by the dying person and by attending funeral ceremonies, while children's fear of death is increased by listening the stories about ghosts and thieves.

You answered in a single sentence which is too long. Your answer should have at least 2 sentences and 5-7 lines in total.

Q2 What is a religious and sacred view of death?

Religious and sacred view of death is the punishment of all the sins one has committed during <sup>one's</sup> his lifetime and a means to enter the hereafter.

Q3 What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

The Painful experiences described by the Monks in their books are the horrible ways of torturing themselves with the pain and torment as a mean to get self-purification

Q4 What are the views of Seneca about death?

views of Seneca about death are the condition of a person during the time of death and rituals performed after death frighten humans more than the death itself would do.

Q5 What are the facts that make death more horrible than it would be otherwise?

The facts that make death appear more frightful are the groans of a dying man, his pale face, screeching of his loved ones and funeral customs.