History is full of people who ~~have~~ started their lives <sup>in</sup> with very difficult situations but later became some of the successful and famous personalities. Success, respect and fame <sup>are</sup> never served up to you in a platter, only wealth can be served up to you in a ~~platter~~ platter, only under one <sup>U</sup> condition that your ancestors must have assets, only then you will receive wealth.

The history is replete with such successful people who began their lives in extremely difficult situations, but with time, they became successful and famous personalities. Success, respect, and fame cannot come to you on a platter. Only wealth can be bestowed upon you if you have ancestral property. For this, it is also imperative that your forefathers have left you with some property, only then you can gain wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes many years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes only a moment to lose it by becoming involved in a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
