Q. Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

History is full of successful people who started their lives from very difficult circumstances.

But they went on to become the most successful & famous people in the world. Achievements, honor & fame never handed to you on a plate, only wealth can be handed to you on a plate but there is a condition for that, it should be the property of your ancestors, then you will get wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly necessities but not happiness.

Sometimes it takes decades for a person to earn respect. It may take a moment to earn disgrace or become controversial.

work on grammatical mistakes.

3/10

The history is replete with such successful people who began their lives in extremely difficult situations, but with time, they became successful and famous personalities. Success, respect, and fame cannot come to you on a platter, only wealth can be bestowed upon you if you have ancestral property. For this, it is also imperative that your forefathers have left you with some property, only then you can gain wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes many years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes only a moment to lose it by becoming involved in a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
