Title: No virtue is insignificant before God

One night, a sacrosanct named Abu Ben Adham woke up and witnessed an angel with his gold book. Relaxing face of angel made him confident to inquire about his activity. He told Abu that he was jotting down the names of beloved ones of God. Abu's ~~name~~ wasn't included in the list though he had a virtue of companionship. This virtue made him appear at an apex of list, as the angel showed him next night, the updated list of dearest ones.
