To love God is to love humanity

Abu Ben Adhem woke up from a deep dream and saw an angel writing in a book of gold. Without hesitation he asked the angel about the contents of the book which were the names of those who love God. Upon finding that Abu's name wasn't in it, Abu asked the angel to put his name as one who loves his fellowmen. The next night angel again visited Abu and told him that his name was at the top of the list of those loved by God.
