Title: GOD BLESSES THOSE WHO LOVE MANKIND

Abou Ben Adhem, a pious man, woke up in the middle of the night and saw an angel writing something in a golden book. He inquired the angel about what he was writing in that book. The angel told him that he was listing the people who love God but Abou's name was not included in that list. Abou prayed that his name might be written in the list of people who love other human beings. The angel revisited him next night and gave him glad tidings that his name was written at the top among those who ~~are~~^{were} being loved by the God.
