Abu Ben Adhem woke up one night to find an angel writing in a gold book. When inquired about its contents, the angel kindly informed him that it contained the names of those who loved God. Abu was curious ~~(about)~~ whether it included his name which the angel denied. He prayed to the angel to write his name among those who love his fellowmen. The next night, the angel visited Abu to show him that his name was at the top of the people whom God loved.
